FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RENEWAL OF THE FREEZE ORDER AGAINST
FOREX CANADA NTS INC. & DOMINIC LONGPRÉ

Montréal, June 21, 2004 – On June 10, 2004, at the request of the Agence nationale d'encadrement du secteur financier (also known by the name of "Autorité des marchés financiers" or "AMF"), the Bureau de décision et de révision en valeurs mobilières (BDRVM) renewed for ninety days the freeze order initially issued by the Commission des valeurs mobilières du Québec (the "Commission") on May 23, 2002 against Forex Canada NTS Inc. (Forex) and its president Dominic Longpré. Pursuant to this decision, neither Mr. Longpré nor Forex may withdraw, appropriate or dispose of funds in their possession or under their control and which belong to investors having purchased foreign currency futures contracts issued by Forex.

Recall that in May 2003, Commission staff had been advised of a declaration of bankruptcy and of the appointment of a trustee regarding both Forex and Mr. Longpré.

Note that the initial freeze order was previously renewed on August 19 and November 13, 2002 as well as on February 10, May 6, July 28, October 31, December 2, 2003 and March 10, 2004
